Aslan Hasn't Grown; Lucy has.

"I have much more to say to you."

Like New Rooms...

WE ARE SO GLAD YOU'RE HERE!

We're celebrating the season of Pentecost and the birth of the Church - when God's Spirit filled the disciples of Jesus (Acts 2)!

We're in a new sermon series called "This Beloved Community" in which we're teaching the three purposes of our church in light of the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Today's sermon invites us into the growing, ongoing, ever-deepening discovery of Jesus through His Spirit.

Discussion Questions for Home Groups:

- . Share an example (from marriage, work, etc.) of growing, ongoing, ever-deepening discovery.
- . Review and share observations about the examples from Luke/Acts of ongoing discovery of Jesus.
- . What is the common "practical problem" related to ongoing discovery of Jesus?
- . What was C.S. Lewis' point in Aslan's words, "...every year you grow, you will find me bigger"?
- . Read John 16:1-15. How do you respond to Jesus saying he has "more to say to you...?"

let's stay connected!
